2015 English Tutors

Josie Beyer

This is Josie Beyer's second year at UW-Marquette. She is currently working toward completing her Associates Degree, with interests in English, Social Work, and Photography. Josie has been affiliated with the Honors Program at UW-Marquette, and looks forward to tutoring English on campus. Josie intends to help guide students in becoming better writers, and aspires to give honest, meaningful, and helpful feedback.

Michael Dahlberg

Michael Dahlberg arrived on the UW-Marquette campus in the fall of 2013 and became a writing tutor in the Student Success Center one year later. He enjoys working with all students—especially those who have questions regarding history, English composition, and introduction to public speaking assignments. In addition to serving as a writing tutor, Michael is also a student ambassador and a three-term senior official in the campus's student government association. While on campus he has also made the Dean's List and has been awarded the United Council of UW Student's Silent Inspiration Award and the campus's academic achievement award in history. In the spring of 2016 Michael plans to transfer to UW-Green Bay to major in history and minor in political science.

Calvin Grandaw

Calvin Grandaw is in his third year at UW-Marquette. In the fall of 2016, he'll transfer to UW-Green Bay to study literature and creative writing. By the end of the Fall 2015 semester, Calvin will have taken eighteen history credits along with ENG 102, ENG 253, and Creative Writing 203 and 204. Calvin was raised in Crivitz, WI, and graduated from Crivitz High School in 1994. He lives in Marinette with his girlfriend and his three children.

Skylee Lara

Fresh out of high school, Skylee Lara is beginning her journey as a college student at UW-Marquette. Her passions in high school were extra-curricular activities, serving as the class treasurer and the president of the Gay/Straight Alliance. She was a member of Science Olympiad, National Honor Society, Youth in Government, Big Brothers/Big Sisters, band, solo and ensemble, and drama club. She has enjoyed working person-to-person in various capacities, and believes that as a student tutor, she can better connect with the students of this campus and would like to not only aid, direct, and teach, but learn and grow with students who visit her. Skylee's interests are music, theater, spoiling her animals, biking, learning, Bernie Sanders, traveling, reading young adult fiction, and the Oxford comma.

Riley Schultz

Riley Schultz is a sophomore at UW-Marquette. She looks forward to working with students in need of writing help and hopes to bring a teamwork style of tutoring into play. Riley also offers tutoring and assistance in Biology courses. She hopes that as a tutor, she will help others to grow as writers along with developing her own teaching and writing skills. Riley previously attended St. Thomas Aquinas Academy where she graduated in 2014 as Valedictorian. Today Riley is a returning player for the UW-Marquette Lady Buccaneers basketball team. Along with her interests in reading and English, Riley plans to major in Biology; and intends to pursue a graduate degree in Ecology.

Carolyn Watts

Carolyn Watts is currently a sophomore at UW-Marquette and plans to earn her Associates Degree in May 2016 with an emphasis on nursing. After Marinette, she intends on transferring to Columbia College of Nursing to work towards her bachelor's degree. When she's not at school, Carolyn enjoys being outside, trying new things, and hanging out with friends. Carolyn hopes that, through tutoring, she will be able to help her peers convey their ideas clearly and creatively to others. She believes that, though everyone has a different writing style, we all have the ability to express what we feel and think through writing.
