Friends of Theatre on the Bay,

This year marks Theatre on the Bay's 45th year of continuous top-quality productions for our community. It is hard to believe how many seasons have flown by since Theatre on the Bay was started by former Dean Lon Weber with Herbert L. Williams and Lyle Iverson. Since 1966 Theatre on the Bay has been a mainstay in our communities, providing cultural entertainment and enrichment for residents, education for our children, and a draw for tourists and business transplants, which helps our economy grow.

We are proud to announce that Theatre on the Bay is bringing the magic back to the Nancy Gehrke stage for the 45th season with the razzle dazzle musical, Chicago to be staged by TOB's summer guest director F. Reed Brown, Assistant Professor of Theatre at UW-Eau Claire.

Children's Theatre director Jamie Schwaba will direct two plays this year including the popular Musical Adventures of Flat Stanley Jr. in October and Famous Fairy Tales in February.

We also welcome our newest Assistant Professor of Communications and Theatre Arts and TOB Artistic Director Rebecca Stone Thornberry, who will join the UW-Marquette faculty this fall. She will direct two plays this season: a delightful romantic comedy, Almost, Maine in November and the poignant The Diary of Anne Frank in March.

We are appealing to you to support Theatre on the Bay and the Children's Theatre, which are entirely dependent on donations and ticket sales for support. UW-Marquette, Marinette County and the State of Wisconsin provide a stage, basic equipment, maintenance, publicity services and business management, but no money for productions. Your donations and ads cover such costs as royalties, scripts, orchestra, director and staff, set design and construction, lighting, sound, costumes, makeup, maintenance, repair and replacement of equipment and promotional materials.

Opportunities abound for you to be part of Theatre on the Bay and the Children's Theatre, which have nurtured rich, cultural traditions for so many years and brought a whole new dimension into so many people's lives, both on and off the stage.

This year, as last, your name or ad will be seen at every play this season—summer, fall and spring. In these times, it is the arts that inspire and lift our spirits.

Your support of Theatre on the Bay and the Children's Theatre helps to maintain our community's legacy and keep it alive with entertainment options. It also provides an artistic venue for our youth and gives our community a source of pride in its diversity. Please show your support of our fine theatre and its importance to our community by donating or placing an ad in our theatre program booklet today!

Tickets will be available for our 2011-2012 productions at Angeli's in Marinette and Menominee two weeks before the production dates, and at the TOB box office one hour before show times. Children's Theatre tickets will also be sold at the Continuing Education Office.

Thank you and see you at the theatre!
